Request to Defer International Student Application

If you have been previous admitted to a program at Texas A&M University-Commerce, you may request to defer your current application term to a future term by completing this form in full and submitting it to the Graduate School along with new bank and sponsor statements. When you have all 3 documents, you may mail, email or fax the documents to the Graduate School. If you have never been admitted to a program at Texas A&M University-Commerce, you must submit a new application to change your application term.
